

NORTHERN BERKSHIRE CREATIVE ARTS :: Summer 2008

Summer Camp Schedule—June 29 through August 23

Summer art camps are held five days a week, in half-day sessions, with a reception on Friday for parents and friends. All classes are held at the NBCA, located in downtown North Adams, unless otherwise noted.

All week-long camps are $125 per child for NBCA Members or $150 for non-members. Inquire about discounts for siblings. Early registration is encouraged. Registration forms can be found on our website, www.nbcreativearts.org. Please inquire about scholarships.

Ages 5–9

June 23—June 27

Art Buffet: Introduction to painting, drawing and sculpture, 9am to 12noon

June 30—July 4

Puppet Theater: The dramatic art of puppetry, 9am to 12noon

Animal Arts: Draw, paint, and sculpt your favorite animals, 1pm to 4pm

July 7—11

Collage Creations: Explore the work of Eric Carle, 9am to 12noon

Cartooning: Create unique characters and stories, 1pm to 4pm

July 14—18

African Journey: Explore the continent through music and dance, 9am to 12noon

Art Explorers: lay, fibers, paints, drawing, and more, 1pm to 4pm

July 21—25

3D Sculpture: Drawing with wire to working with plaster, 9am to 12noon

Nature Studies: Observe, interpret, and record nature, 1pm to 4pm

July 28—August 1

A World of Art: From Chinese brush painting to Mayan sculpture, 9am to 12noon

Summerscapes: Artwork inspired by summer, gardens, and nature, 1pm to 4pm

August 4—8

PlayActing: Learn improv, miming, role-playing and more, 9am to 12noon

Music and Art: Make and play your own musical instruments, 1pm to 4pm

August 11—15

Street Dancing: Jazz and hip-hop moves inspired by 70s and 80s, 9am to 12noon

Mad for Mud: Introduction to hand building with clay, 1pm to 4pm

August 18—22

Fly a Kite: Chinese art of kite making, 9am to 12noon

Late Summer at Sheep Hill: explore and artistically interpret nature, 9am to 12noon
(class held at Sheep Hill, Williamstown)

Storybook Art: Illustrate your own or favorite stories, 1pm to 4pm

Ages 10–13

All classes held from 1pm to 4pm unless otherwise noted

June 30—July 4

Textile Arts: Turn fabric into unique designs

July 7—11

Intro to Ikebana: Learn the traditional Japanese art of flower arranging

July 14—18

Design Your Own Folly: Construct architectural models, 9am to 12noon

African Journey: Explore the continent through music and dance, 1pm to 4pm

July 21—25

All About Jewelry: Create jewelry with beads, clay, paper, wood, etc.

July 28—August 1

Reuse, Recycle, Rewear!: Fashion and home décor techniques

August 4—8

Plein Air Painting: Capture the Berkshire landscapes in various locations

August 11—15

Paintography: Explored photography and painting as complimentary mediums

August 18—22

Videodrama: Learn theater and video production

Printmaking Workshop: Making a Mark in the World

July 21-25 and 28, 2-4 pm, ages 13 and up

Classes held at Williams College Museum of Art and Gravity Press in North Adams.

Taking it Outdoors: Painting and Drawing for the Whole Family

July 12 through August 16, Saturdays, 10am to 12noon, ages 9 and up

Explore the Clark's permanent collection, then set up outdoors for sketching and painting the Berkshire summer landscape. Sign up for one or take all six: $35 per session for no more than 2 adults and 2 children.

Scholarships available!

Have your birthday party at the NBCA!